Shipping Still Held Up By Turbulence
of the Sound Waters

The Sound has not yet cleared from the storm of a couple of days ago but is still very rough and the water is reported as having "holes" in it beyond the breakwater. The harbor itself is calm. This rough water is keeping most of the tugs in the harbor although the Naugatuck, the Park City and the freight steamers are making their regular trips.

The tug Elmer Keeler is weather bound with a tow of six boats which she is taking east.

United States Government Inspectors Fred Dennis and Victor Wright of New Haven were in town this morning inspecting the tug Success. Each tug is inspected annually and passenger boats at least twice a year.

The Santa Maria which has been stationed at the Steeplechase dock for the past week, will leave Monday morning for New York, being towed down to the metropolis.

Business Men to Get
Taste of Army Life

New York, Aug. 6.—Captain Gordon Johnston, U. S. A., in charge of applications for admission to the Plattsburgh, N. Y., military training camp, left Governor's Island today for Plattsburgh, where the headquarters of the camp will be established immediately.

When the camp opens on Tuesday approximately 1,200 men drawn from the various lines of business are expected to be in attendance. They will adopt the army method of living for a month and will receive military instructions from a corps of army officers designated by Major General Leonard Wood, commanding the Department of the East. Among the pupils of the camp will be a number of New York policemen.

CUPHEAG CLUB PREPARES FOR ANNUAL CLAMBAKE

(Special to The Farmer.) Stratford, Aug. 6.—The Cupheag club, at a meeting last night, made preliminary plans for the annual clambake. The bake will be held the latter part of this month, the place and date to be announced soon.

The Nichols Avenue Improvement club will hold an outing at Dahlgren Grove next Sunday.

The submarine Boat Corporation was incorporated at Albany with $4,000,000 capital to manufacture ordnance and do brokerage shipbuilding business.
